OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 1 May 1962

25X1 1. ([REDACTED] - GLC) [REDACTED], Security, advised 25X1 us of an inquiry he has received from NASA Security concerning a question they received from Senator Prescott Bush with respect to a NEW YORK 25X1 MIRROR article referring to a Cuban scientist and allegations in the article that Soviet technicians in Cuba were capable of influencing U.S. space flights. [REDACTED] has contacted OSI who has little information on this and he is also discussing it with DD/P. The article specifically refers to CIA but no action is required by this office at this time.

25X1 2. ([REDACTED] - GLC) Talked with [REDACTED] CI Staff, concerning 25X1 the inquiry we had received from Don Appell, of the House Committee on Un-American Activities staff, with respect to Myron Emmanuel Sharp and the publications CROSS-CURRENTS and SOVIET BOOKLETS. [REDACTED] said 25X1 that since this was an open propaganda effort on the part of the Soviets, it is not closely followed by his people. He is making several other checks and will be in touch with us. However, he suggested that HCUA might do 25X1 better to contact the FBI and USIA.
